

Jakes Conradie (back left) at La Vierge, Cape Winelands with some of his Colleagues

The founder Jakes Conradie is a born South African who extensively travelled the country, not only for holiday destinations or for his occupation, but also for sporting activities. He is always attempting to assist and improve the environment, motivating communities to protect nature in order to create a sustainable eco-system, and to protect all species for future generations. To promote nature and to make people aware of its beauty is the reason he founded a travel and tour company:

www.amatungulu.com

Jakes is competent to advise clients on all essential aspects of travel in South Africa having passed the SA Specialist course from South African Tourism. His love for nature and history brought him to the most beautiful and spectacular places of South Africa, and that is where he wants to take his Tourists as well.

Jakes Conradie has successfully passed his/her SA Specialist training course.

SA Specialist is a self-study online training course designed to equip travel product and service providers to sell South Africa more effectively.

Participants who successfully complete the course are called SA Specialists, meaning they are experts in South African travel.

Jakes Conradie is now a South African travel expert, having passed his/her course, and is entitled to use the term 'SA Specialist' when giving advice on travel to South Africa.

Jakes Conradie is competent to advise clients on all essential aspects of travel to South Africa, reasons to visit South Africa, the best attractions and activities on offer in South Africa, and more.

As the SA Specialist course host, South African Tourism is proud to be associated with Jakes Conradie and congratulates him/her on his/her achievement.
